

SEMINAR SERIES

Fridays at 11:00 am
Marley 230

10:45 am refreshments

To attend remotely: link

<https://arizona.zoom.us/j/88223207294>

Password: Insects

SEPTEMBER

06	EIS Welcome Reception
13	Arianne Cease, ASU Linking locust nutrition to livelihoods through global collaborations
20	Tim Linksvayer, ASU The evolution of social complexity in ants
27	Ulises M. Ricoy, UA Neuroscience Neuroethology Culturally Responsive Research and Outreach

OCTOBER

04	Gregory A. Sword, Texas A&amp;M From Locusts To Cotton and Back on the Shoulders of Giants
11	Todd Schlenke, UA Entomology Host-parasite interactions using Drosophila
18	Melissa Guzman, University of Southern California Using occupancy models to infer trends of bee biodiversity in North America
25	John Hildebrand, UA Neuroscience Science Academies: Origins and Roles in Science Policy and Diplomacy -- Bridging Science and Society

NOVEMBER

01	Josh Kohn, University of California San Diego Effects of super-abundant feral honey bees on plants and pollinators in a biodiversity hotspot
08	Jen White, University of Kentucky Tangled webs: microbial symbiont dynamics within and among spider hosts
15	Krijn Paaimans, ASU TBD
22	Chloe Chabaud, UA Entomology TBD

Scan to learn about future EIS events

